

HULLBRIDGE PARISH COUNCIL

Winter 2021

Welcome to our Winter Newsletter
Hullbridge Parish Council would like to wish all residents a Happy Christmas and a Healthy New Year

Chairmans Christmas Card Competition

Thankyou to everyone who entered this years competition, we had lots of great entries. This year the winner is Hattie aged 8 with her picture of Santa on the river. Congratulations to her and also Lyla (10) and Vienna (8) who came second and third.

Best Shop Frontage

This will be judged in early December.

Christmas Parcels—Are you 80 or over?

We would like to thank the Green Co-op on Ferry Road for helping us source the food for our Christmas Parcels and for the donation towards the cost of these. We are very lucky to have such supportive local businesses

If you have not previously had a parcel then please contact the Parish Office to be added to the list.

Armistice Day

The service took place on 14th November at the War Memorial on the High Elms Estate attended by Reverend Neil Blake from Hullbridge Free Church and Reverend Richard Jordan from St.Thomas , 1st Hullbridge Scouts were also present .There was a good turnout and we were lucky to have a lovely bright morning. A wreath was laid on behalf of Hullbridge Parish Council by the Chairman David Elwell.

Hullbridge Christmas Tree and Lights

We are very grateful for the donations from local businesses to sponsor our Christmas Tree from D&G Domestic/ Print & Web Studios Hullbridge and Paul J King Funeral Directors. The tree situated in Pooles Lane Car Park has new lights this year and we hope you enjoy it over the Christmas period.

Planning in Hullbridge

Please see our Facebook and website for the link to helpful information on the process for considering Planning Applications in Hullbridge.

Councillor Surgeries

These will be held bi-monthly in various locations around the village to give you the opportunity to talk face to face with a Councillor and raise any issues or concerns in confidence.

Ferry Pharmacy/Riverside Medical Centre

We would like to extend our thanks to both the Ferry Pharmacy and Riverside Medical Centre for their support of residents and keeping us all vaccinated during these recent difficult times. Please do call to arrange your booster jabs if you have not already been contacted. The Parish Office now has a supply of Lateral Flow tests.

Kendal Park Nature Reserve The works by Anglian Water are mostly concluded now, they will still be working by the Simla entrance to the nature reserve until January 2022. The cockle shells have now been laid on the pathways in Kendal Park, and we will be looking to repair the pond in 2022.
