

HULLBRIDGE PARISH COUNCIL

Spring 2018

Welcome to our Spring Newsletter

Thank you

Hullbridge Parish Council would like to thank everyone who came along, enjoyed and participated in the Hullbridge Christmas Fayre. Special thanks to the HCA who helped organise, marshal, arrange Santa's Grotto and sponsored the Christmas tree.

Unfortunately due to a power failure causing an underground fault it blew all the fuses resulting with no lights over the festive period. SAVE the DATE - Saturday 1st DEC 2018, Christmas Fayre between 3-6pm. Our booking forms for a stall / pitch are now available on our website. Please contact us if you are interested in performing at the event.

CHAIRMAN's Christmas Card Competition was won by Sienna Hall. Children 11 and under can enter this year's competition. Details to follow.

Parcels for the Elderly (80+)

The Parish Council sent out over 180 parcels this year which were greatly received and appreciated. If you or you know anyone that turns 80 this year or who didn't receive a parcel then please contact us.

Kendal Park Nature Reserve

We have carried out a lot of work in the Reserve and this will continue this year with maintenance work on the footpaths and the cockle shells being replenished. We have been successful with our funding bid to refurbish the pond and this project will start later in the year. The pond will be split so we have a nature pond and a pond dipping platform also a boggy area. Having both types of habitats will encourage all types of wildlife.

Community Special Constables

We are pleased to confirm that we will be funding three Community Special Constables for Hullbridge this is a new scheme in Partnership with the Police.
