

HULLBRIDGE PARISH COUNCIL POLICY FOR ITEMS TO BE PUBLISHED ON THE WEBSITE, PARISH NOTICEBOARDS, Including Banners

Adopted: 9th June 2014

Reviewed 13th March 2017, updated 18.09.2017, 11th June 2018

Use of Notice Board Policy

The Parish Council owns two locked main notice boards, one which is located outside the Library and the other in Pooles Lane car park, also two boards at the Parish Council Office. A noticeboard at the Allotments also 7 Bus Shelter Noticeboards.

There are also two open boards (outside the Hullbridge Garden's Association and in Pooles Lane car park) which are open and can be used by any resident to advertise their event, but any inappropriate notices will be taken down.

The Parish Council has developed the following policy to reflect the nature of the information that it considers to be appropriate for display within the Parish Council's Main / Office noticeboards. The purpose of the notice board is to provide information that would be directly relevant to residents of Hullbridge.

The Clerk will have discretion within this policy to determine what items will be displayed and for how long, having regard to the number of items that are competing for display at any time. The Parish Council reserves the right to decline to display any notice.

Material to be displayed

Material will be considered for display in accordance with the following:

1) Priority will always be given to the display of official/legal notices for or on behalf of the Parish Council or other local authorities, including the following:

- a) Agendas for meetings of Hullbridge Parish Council;
- b) Minutes of Hullbridge Parish Council;
- c) Planning Notices or information, as considered appropriate;
- d) Paperwork related to the Annual Return and Rights of Electors relating to Hullbridge Parish Council accounts;
- e) Parish, District and County Election Notices.

2) Subject to 1) above, other space may be used for the following:

- a) Notices promoting events taking place within Hullbridge, in particular those organised by charities or organisations that give evidence that they are not-for-profit;
- b) Practical local information e.g. road closure notices from Essex Highways; waste service information from Rochford District/Essex County Council;
- c) Notices advertising charity/not-for-profit events outside Hullbridge, but within a reasonable distance, such that they are likely to be interest, including those organised on behalf of Rochford District Council/Essex County Council;
- d) Notices from other authorities that are not legal notices but which provide useful information such as Trading Standards notices, Rochford District Council News Releases etc.;
- e) Notices from other agencies e.g. Citizens Advice Bureau, Voluntary Groups, Essex Fire and Rescue Authority, the Police etc. offering services or information that may be of use to specific groups of residents, particularly those that promote health and social well-being, or offer educational or cultural opportunities or courses;

f) For-profit events may be advertised if it is judged that the event is likely to be of Interest to residents and space permits e.g. a local Classic Car Show or Art Exhibition etc.

3) The notice board will not be used to display:

- a) Information relating to business/trade/commercial services or activities, whether on behalf of local companies or otherwise;
- b) Notices of a political or religious nature, Non-Charity fundraising or charity posters appealing for direct fundraising appeals/collections (other than for jumble sales etc. which may be displayed under section 2);
- c) Material that is considered to be illegal, inflammatory or offensive.
- d) Material from any Action Group

Display and Appearance of Material

- a) Material will only be placed on the notice board by the Clerk or her staff
- b) Requests to display information on the notice board shall be made directly to the Clerk or, in her absence, to the Administration Assistant or if necessary another Staff Member/Councillor.
- c) Posters must be of attractive appearance with a good quality of print and legibility;
- d) The contact details for the organisation or agency issuing the material for display must be clearly visible on the notice;
- e) Wherever possible items must be displayed at A4 size or smaller. In general terms, posters greater than A4 size will only be accepted from local authorities;
- f) No assurance will be given as to if and when an item will be displayed, or for how long it will remain on display. On average, if accepted for display, information will be displayed for between 1-3 weeks. It should be noted that a notice that advertises a series of events over a period of months may be removed well ahead of the final event taking place due to pressure upon space;
- g) Any unauthorised material that appears on the notice board will be removed.

BUS SHELTER NOTICEBOARDS

In addition to the above as there is only room for a maximum of four notices in each, the Clerk will allow one Parish Notice, one HCA Charity Event, one Hullbridge Sports & Social Charity Event and one "Other" Village event (this notice could be from a Church, Yacht Club or Village Organisation to promote an event).

Allotment Noticeboard will ONLY have relevant Allotment Notices.

ALL NOTICES FOR THE NOTICEBOARD MUST BE SENT TO THE CLERK IN HARD COPY and THE PARISH COUNCIL IS NOT ABLE TO BEAR THE COST OF PRINTING NOTICES FOR ANY OTHER ORGANISATIONS.
